FASHIONS.—A pretty and convenient adjunct has been added to a lady's shopping costume, consisting of a bag of Russia leather hung at the side, and suspended from a belt of the same material. The new bracelets are also stylish, worn with light muslins, being made of wide bands of silver, simply chased and enameled. The last charm is a tiny vinaigrette hanging from the chateleine. Fainting is of course the latest whim, and therefore this elegant trifle! The less elaborate style of coiffure will cause loss to hair-pin dealers, as fifty-seven are by no means an unusual number contained within creped locks of golden hair. And these fair ones of the period have barely time for even pinning these from gentlemen, which we are assured number more than two hundred, then the endless directions for paniers puffs and ruffles, the poor creatures require all the aid possibly procurable from art and artifice, just keep them from falling to pieces. The newest style in shoes is the Newport Tie, after the fashion of the Marie Antoinette, excepting that the front lappet is not so high. The American heel is fast superseding the French, being much prettier and more comfortable. Morocco is again asserting itself, and in cuir, dark blue, and bright scarlet is very effective in the high slippers. Boots are more popular than buttoned, as the fit on the instep and ankle is nearer perfect. Toilette slippers of linen, bound in blue or scarlet, are, during the present heat, especially acceptable.

UNSETTLED WAR CLAIMS.
AT ITS LAST SESSION CONGRESS, AS an amendment to the army appropriation bill, directed the President to appoint a commission to ascertain and adjust the claims of all citizens in the South for Quartermaster and Commissary supplies furnished to the United States during the war. Under the head of Quartermaster are included hay, straw, wood, rent of houses and barns, grain, horses and mules, &c., &c. Commissary stores are included cattle and hogs, flour, corn meal, &c. As yet the rules which will be adopted by the commission concerning proof of loyalty and the furnishing of supplies are unknown. It is very necessary, however, that all claimants should have their claims presented at once, so as to have whatever benefit may result from priority of application, if any.
The undersigned will receive and promptly attend to all claims of parties who themselves are entitled to compensation under the above act of Congress.

Congress having just passed an act creating a commission to examine claims of loyal citizens of the South for stores or supplies taken on or furnished for the use of the army of the United States during the late war, the undersigned, CHARLES WHITTLESLEY, late Attorney General of the State of Virginia, and WESTLEY WILCOUGHBY, late Judge of the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia, having associated themselves together for the purpose of giving special attention to this class of claims, offer to prosecute such claims, and hereby solicit the attention of claimants to their facilities for securing the benefits of this most effective and permanent measure of relief. The above named will make bankrupt business a specialty; will procure discharges on the most moderate terms, and transact all business in that line at prices which cannot fail to be satisfactory. Being U. S. Commissioners, they will endeavor to visit the different counties on court days, and thus save parties the trouble and expense of several trips to Alexandria in beginning and proceeding with their cases. Discharges can be obtained here before Register Hays as promptly as at Richmond or elsewhere, and at much less expense. Congress having just amended the Bankrupt law so that nearly all parties can be discharged from their debts unobscured by the fifty per cent. clause, so-called, another opportunity is offered to secure the benefits of this most effective and permanent measure of relief. The above named will make bankrupt business a specialty; will procure discharges on the most moderate terms, and transact all business in that line at prices which cannot fail to be satisfactory. Being U. S. Commissioners, they will endeavor to visit the different counties on court days, and thus save parties the trouble and expense of several trips to Alexandria in beginning and proceeding with their cases. Discharges can be obtained here before Register Hays as promptly as at Richmond or elsewhere, and at much less expense. It may be added that the Bankrupt act, in connection with the Homestead exemption, which is now believed will be secured to the bankrupt under the bankrupt law, is the only real relief now offered to parties struggling in the hopeless bondage of old debts. For full particulars, call on the undersigned at No. 12 South Royal street, Alexandria, Va.
